

in response to allowing telemarketing via phone. I work nights I have 4 children in school. Turning off my phone is not an option since the schools may need to contact me during the day. However I have the right to sleep. And my phone was a nuisance before with telemarketers. Don't make it a nuisance again. They can solicit me by mail. At least I have the option of sleeping then, and still being a responsible parent for my children.